

RIVIERA PEOPLE

BY MICHEL DESFORGES

A Rose Ball that was definitely "Movida"!

Their Royal Highnesses Prince and Princess of Hanover, HSH Prince Albert, Charlene Wittstock, Baroness Elisabeth-Ann de Massy

HRH Princess Caroline of Hanover and Pedro Almodovar

Charlotte and Pierre Casiraghi arriving at the ball with their friends

Mr Bernard Lambert, General Director of the SBM, and Mme. Lambert

Laeticia Hallyday and Prince Charles de Bourbon-Siciles

Dr. R. de Sigaldi and Princess Camilla de Bourbon-Siciles

Steven Brand, Faye Dunaway and Agata Gotova

Michel Bouquier, Yoko Natsuki, Satoru Okura, Noriko Bonafede

HE Odile Remik-Adine and Professor Marc Tadié

Angela Van Wright and Mr. Okura

Baroness de Beaulieu, Professor Marc Tadié, Rosaimée Moine-Lamirault, Catherine Guyon-Sabbe, Laeticia Hallyday and Nathalie-Anne Moine

ROSE BALL 2008. Presided by HSH Prince Albert II of Monaco and HRH Princess Caroline of Hanover, this year's Bal de la Rose was dedicated to "La Movida", the artistic movement that took Spain by storm in the 'eighties. TELEVISION FESTIVAL. A star is born: the young Agata Gotova in "Say It in Russian". She presented the film, which takes place in Moscow and in Paris, in perfect English and French at the première in Monte-Carlo. "DEEP JAPAN". Mr. Okura, head of the Okura dynasty of Noh Theatre percussionists, gave a gala performance with Noriko Bonafede at the Monte-Carlo Opera-House. CHARITY GALA. Laeticia Hallyday and VIPs from Geneva, Paris, Rome, Brussels and Monaco attended a gala dinner given by Rosaimée Moine-Lamirault, President of the IRM Research Institute, for victims of brain traumatism, under the patronage of HSH Prince Albert II.